FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR CHRISTIAN TEACHERS AND FORMER TEACHERS

'Direct action at the point of need'

www.cssbi.org.uk

WHO WE ARE

The CSSBI is a charity that provides financial support for teachers, both current and former, at the point of need.

Since the first meeting in 1857 when a benevolent fund was established, the CSSBI has supported Church of England teachers who 'fell on hard times'. The evolution of the CSSBI as a charity has been an extraordinary tribute to the care and concern of all who have been associated with it over many years.

This ethos continues as the charity today supports retired and serving Christian teachers and their dependants.

Today the CSSBI is actively looking for those individuals from all Christian denominations who would benefit from our support.

WHO CAN WE HELP?

CSSBI SUPPORT SERVICES

- Direct action at the point of need
- Support for Christian teachers, former teachers or their families, who are in need of financial assistance
- Support for costs associated with ill health, disability, sudden change of circumstances, home repairs or adaptations

Objects of the CSSBI:

“The objects for which the Company is established are to provide for necessitous present or former teachers/lecturers and those in teacher training who are members of the Church of England or of another recognised Christian denomination, by giving financial assistance in times of affliction, disablement or other misfortune, and on their demise to provide for their financial dependants, such financial assistance to include (but not to be limited to) assistance towards the cost of subsistence and education in each case anywhere within England and Wales.”
